Every teacher in our database has access to digital media and digital sound recordings through their Web/MAX account.

Just click on DM

and/or DS and hit "go" and you will see several thousand titles at your finger tips. EdVideo Online from public television (WCNY Syracuse) and Learn 360 are loaded in our online catalog. You only need to log into Web/MAX - one log-in, one password to access all the resources available to you through BOCES Media Technology Services. We will also facilitate training in your school district. Please contact Media Technology Services at 793-8514 if you want to schedule training or have any questions.

Historic Inauguration January 20, 2009

It's time to plan ahead for this historic event. Building student awareness to the presidential process as well as the uniqueness of the fact that we are having the inauguration of our first African-American President should be high on everyone's list for December and January. Here are some helpful resources for you to use to build a lesson or unit. A one-page lesson can be found on page 11 of School Library Activities Monthly December 2008 issue. It includes standards, web resources and assesment ideas. Augment the material with some of the more than 50 resources found in our Web/MAX catalog. The materials are available in many formats. Below are some of what you will find.

DM19379	Abraham & Mary Lincoln: A House Divided -Episode 6 Blind With Weeping: Inauguration Day	IJS

FYI - When you login to webmax make sure it is actually your account. If you have a common name like Smith, Brown, etc., you could be logged on as someone else, do all your booking and then wonder why you didn't get your media. Be sure to look at the top of the page and that it has your name and your building to be delivered to. If not, give us a call and we will look up your login.

Reminder - Preview Media

Please Preview! Annotations in our catalog are included as a guide to selection. However, since materials are purchased to meet a variety of educational needs, it is recommended that ALL MATERIALS BE PREVIEWED that have not been used previously.
