WILL YOU SIGN HERE, JOHN HANCOCK? DVD322
 PI 30 minutes\color 2005

John Hancock lived in a fine house in Boston with all the luxuries he could ask for, but he didn't think it was right to pay taxes to King George III. Joining other revolutionary war heroes like Sam Adams, without sacrificing his love of good living, he devoted his energies and finances to the fight against England and became one of the most famous signers of the Declaration of Independence. DVD includes an interview with the author.
