

So Many Books...So Little Time An Exploration of Current Literature

When: 2 sessions, Thursday, August 12, 2010
 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Elementary (PreK-6) Literature
 12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. MS/HS (7-12) Literature

Where: Oneida Conference Room - BOCES at Middle Settlement Rd.,
 New Hartford

Presenter: Starr Latronica, Youth Services/Outreach Manager, Four County Library System

Who: Classroom Teachers and Librarians

Content: Back by popular demand!! Starr brings her knowledge and love of literature to bear on this exploration of books for educators to use with their students. Whether you are thinking End-of-Summer or Beginning-of-School-Year this exploration of student literature is for you. Savor the long days with the best books. Kick back and enjoy an overview of new titles that you will enjoy as much as your students, and which you will be inspired to use in your curriculum and to have for self-directed classroom reading. Starr has served on the Caldecott Committee, the board of directors for the Association for Library Service to Children, and as chair of the Newbery Committee, and president of the Youth Services Section of the New York Library Association. In her current role as YSS/SLMS liaison she initiated the wiki, <http://nysauthorsandillustrators.pbworks.com> Starr's vast experience in the world of literature makes her analysis of the books she shares in these workshops very valuable to librarians and teachers alike.
