Battle of the Books Club Workshop

Audience: Library Media Specialists, Teachers

Presenter: Cindy Staley, LMS, Dolgeville Central School

When: July 25, 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Where: Conference Room, Info & Tech Center, 502 Court St., Utica, NY

Content: Do you have a book club or would you like to start one? Come to this workshop and learn about the new initiative to create middle school and high school books clubs within districts and then have the clubs meet and compete against each other in a team competition in March. You will learn how the team competition works, get the lists of titles for the 2016-2017 school year and learn how to start small and build the love of reading and meeting other students who love to read! (A ‘grass roots’ set of clubs began with a few librarians and teachers in the ONC and HFM BOCES. We are hoping to get some OH schools to join. Not affiliated with America’s Battle of the Books.)
